

Article Reading Sheet

Complete Reference

Title: Connecting Households With Reliable Service Provider: A study one_stop service portal. pages: 664-671 International Journal of Trend in Scientific Research and Development (IJTSRD).

Authors: Karthik Setty, Nutan Urkhunde, Usha Kosalkar, Shubhara Chmalatpure, Prof. Anupam Chaube.

Useful Citation

- One-stop service portal contain all digital market places that offer timely access to a broad range of home facilities. The worldwide requirement for these types of facilities is rising owing to the ease of accessibility and convenience which are provided by these facilities. page: 664
- Residents often face challenges in accessing reliable and efficient home services. These challenges include time constraints due to busy schedules, lack of transparency in pricing and service quality, and difficulty in finding trustworthy service providers.

Keywords

- Digital Service Platform.
- One_Stop service portal.
- Household service.
- Online booking.
- Service Provider Connection.

Personal Summary

The article presents an online one-stop service portal that connects users with a variety of household service providers. the platform allows customers to browse and book services such as repairs, cleaning, healthcare, and other home service from the comfort of their homes. the article emphasizes the growing global demand for digital service platforms due to convenience, accessibility, and time saving benefits.

It also highlights the challenges in traditional service delivery, such as lack of centralization and difficulty in finding trustworthy providers, which the portal amis to solve.

Main Result

1. Digital platform demand is rising: the article notes that global demand for one_stop service portal is increasing due to their accessibility and convenience in providing multiple household service.
2. Platform connect consumers with providers efficiently: the portal links users and service providers ans allows online booking and payment, streamlining service delivery.
3. Save time and money: the system helps users access a variety of services quickly and reliably from home, reducing time and cost compared to traditional method.
4. Market segmentation: different types of services such as food, healthcare, carpentry, entertainment, etc... Can be included in the portal, supporting a wide range of costumer need.
5. Solves service discovery problems: traditional search methods (word of mouth, directories) are inefficient, the portal provides a centralized system that simplifies comparison of prices and quality.

FAQ Sheet

Brocelle
Agency

About the Agency

Q: What services do you offer, and do you accept small projects?

A: Branding, Content Creation, Digital Marketing, Creative Campaigns. Yes, we are flexible for all project sizes.

Work Process

Q: What is the workflow, timeline, and revisions?

A: Initial Meeting → Proposal & Timeline → Production → Revisions → Final Result. The typical turnaround time is 2-4 weeks, depending on the project, including two standard revisions.

Costs & Payment

Q: Are there pricing packages, what is the payment system, and are there any additional fees outside the package?

A: Yes, Basic, Standard, and Premium packages are available. Payment is made with a 50% down payment and the remainder upon completion. Additional fees only apply if there are requests outside the initial scope.

Collaboration

Q: Who is the PIC (Direct Account Manager) and can they provide ideas?

A: Each client is assigned a dedicated Account Manager who is always receptive to client feedback.

Other

Q: Can I have an NDA?

A: Yes, depending on the client's needs.

Other

 + 123-456-7890

 www.reallygreatsite.com

 123 Anywhere St., Anycity